

Activity: Perform your own Melodrama!

Think of a fairytale, a well-known story, or a song that you know well. What emotions are being told through it? Use the below examples of facial expressions, body language, and gestures to create a performance of your chosen medium in the style of a Victorian melodrama.

